

RM Education

This is a photograph of the big cheque that I produced for an integrated campaign targeting local authority decision makers. Our objective was to obtain appointments at an event we were exhibiting at to discuss the advantages of changing their school MIS product.

This big cheque was personalised for each local authority, went with an accompanying direct mail letter and was followed up by a telemarketing effort to secure appointments for our sales team at BETT.

